

North American Tool Corporation is pleased to announce that Barbara Bishop has been appointed Manager of Tool Design and Customer Service.

Barb brings over 21 years of invaluable cutting tool experience to this position. She has performed a number of key roles at North American Tool since 1987. Most recently, Barb served as the company's Purchasing Manager.

Barb is always ready to serve your cutting tool needs with experience and professionalism.